DESCRIPTIONS DEFINED

Uncirculated. (Unc.) A coin never in circulation.

Proof. (Pf.) A specially struck coin for collectors. Carefully prepared its brilliant field and dull relief (a few issues are excepted) coupled with careful handling from the moment it leaves the die makes them the apex of numismatic splendor.

Brilliant. (Br.) Coins are not described as brilliant unless they have the full original mint lustre. These may be slightly oxidized (tarnished) which in most cases adds to the beauty of the piece. Excessive oxidization is noted by such adjectives as 'red,' 'dull red,' 'purple,' 'gold,' 'olive,' etc.

EXTREMELY FINE (E. F.) Perfectly sharp and high relief.

VERY FINE (V. F.) All small details are sharp and clear.

FINE (F.) All small details are legible but not sharp.

VERY GOOD (V. G.) Some of the small details and letters are worn off.

GOOD (G.) All large features and letters are legible.

FAIR (Fr.) Some of the large features and letters are worn off.

Any noticable defect or flaw that detracts from the appearance of the piece, CONSIDERING ITS GRADING, is noted.

Lots may be examined at my Numismatic Store daily, Monday to Saturdays inclusive 9:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

VALUATIONS given herewith are taken from recognized catalogs and are given as a convenience to collectors. They are not reserves. Lots may sell for less and in a few cases more than these prices. The following catalogues have been used:

Standard Catalogue of U. S. Coins and Tokens

Standard Catalogue of Paper Money
